Some reviews:

Pam DeGregorio says, "If you've never been to one of Pete's versatility clinics, you need to sign up for at least one. He's the best instructor for versatility that I've seen - really understands horses and the fact that it's all about the horse trusting the handler/rider to take care of him/her. Pete is the best!"

Wendy Waegell says, "Pete is the most patient, kind horse trainer I have ever encountered. He made a huge difference in the life of my young horse. The words he says are always praise for a try or a success at what he is asking for. His methods give the horse confidence and a sense of fun in learning. I am so fortunate to have found "It's a Pleasure Training."
